

COMMERCE OF THE PORT OF NEW YORK.

Total amount for ten days $1,078,666 55 total receipts of the Tonawanda railroad during ping list, showing the quantity of certain articles exported from this district, for the first four months of the pas three years. It will be observed that the increase prodominates, and that the aggregate exportation of these ports from the interior, and that is the increased demand for consumption in the immediate vicinity of the produc-tion. There has been within the last two years such an immense increase in manufacturing and other mechanical pursuits throughout the Western and Southdown the Mississipi, and the returns made at Albany and Troy of the receipts of produce from the West, via the canals, show a fulfing off in the extent of receipts, compared with the corresponding period of last year. The crops in every section of the Union were last year im. mense, larger than ever before known since the settle-ment of the country. The receipts of the new crop last fall were not unusually large, giving us to suppose that there were enormous stocks in the interior, in first hands, waiting the opening of payigation in the spring, and an improvement in prices, to forward the surplus to market. Our anticipations thus far have not been realized, and we are induced to believe that the receipts have been reduc ed by the causes given above, which we sum up as follows:—Reduced prices for agricultural products at the scaport markets; increased consumption in the interior and the contracts made by many of the producers of the West, to hold their supplies until a certain time in the season. We annex the table of exports from this port.

BREADSTUFFS.—Common brands of Genesee are dull at $4 81}.

Corron.—The enquiry to-day was good, and the sales amount to 2000 bales. Prices continue steady.

Coal.—The demand for Coal, says the Pottsville Jour nal of the 10th instant, is very brisk at present, particularly for large White Ash, and the price has advanced. A large portion of the Schuylkill Valley and the whole of the Mill Creek Region, remains cut off from the market, in consequence of the Roads being taken up to widen the tracks between the Reading Railroad and the connection. The Mill Creek Road will be ready in about three weeks. The Little Schuylkill Railroad at Port Clinton, has been completed, and the first train of ears departed from that place on Thursday last.

Vessels are very scarce at Philadelphia, to carry coal to Eastern Ports, and freights have advanced.

The Commercial List gives the following rates:—To Salem, $2 20 to 2 30 per ton; Boston, 2 18 to 2 25 do; Portland, 2 25 do; New Bedford, 1 14, to 2 50 do; Providence and Fall River, 1 10 to 1 50 do; Charleston, 2 75 to 3 87; Nantucket, 1 50 to 1 75 do; New York, 1 00. The receipts from Customs at this port for the first tes days of May amount to $498,978 68. The receipts for the month of May, 1843, amounted to $943,256; in May, 1844, to $1,863,874. The receipts so far this month have been at about the same rate they were last year, for the corthe month of April, were $9,721, of which $629 was for up freight, $723 for down freight, and $7,721 for passen-gers. This shows a slight falling off from corresponding dominates, and that the aggregate exportation of these items for the first four months of 1845, exceeds that of the first four months of 1844. The exports in 1844 were much larger than in 1843, each year showing a steady increase on the previous one. There has been a falling off in the exportation of agricultural products, such as Beef, Pork, Flour, Lard, Rice, and Wheat. The demand abroad for these articles is very limited, which is one of the prime causes of the reduced exportation; but the primcipal cause is the falling off in the supplies at the ports of exportation, in consequence of the low prices ruling for the staple agricultural products of the country. We can give another reason for the reduced receipts at the principal ports from the interior, and that is the increased demand

No. 2 $10 75 a 11; No. 3 $5 50 a 6. Pickled Cod we quote at $3 25 a 3 50. City Smoked Salmon at 9 a 10c per pound.

Hay.—Common qualities of North River Bale sell at 40 a 42c; Prime is held at 45 a 47c. The receipts are to a fair extent and the demand moderate.

Lead.—Small sales of pig we notice at $3 37\frac{1}{2}.

Provisions.—The market is not active, and prices are without alteration. Old prime Ohio we still quote at $9 43\frac{1}{2} a 9 56\frac{1}{2}. Old Mess do at $12 62\frac{1}{2}. Very little doing in Beef—we quote new Mess at $8 50 a 9 26; new prime at $5 50 a 6 25. Ohio Lard is held at 7\frac{1}{2} a 8c for prime.

Whiskey.—Drudge casks are in good demand and we quote sales at 23c. Western and Prison barrels sell at 22 a 23\frac{1}{2}c.

New York Cattle Market, May 12.—At market—1050 Beef Cattle, 800 from the South, 80 Cows and Calves and 1000 Sheep and Lambs.

Prices—Beef Cattle—Considerable spirit prevailed in the market last week, caused, in a measure, by the unusually large number which arrived from the South, some of which were sent on to Boston—and buyers were more active than for several weeks past, all at market having been taken. Holders, however, failed in obtaining any advance on the quotations of last week, which we resume, viz.: $5 to 7 as in quality.

Cows and Calves.—$18 to 25 a 20, we quote as the extremes of the market. All sold.

Sheep and Lambs.—Sheep $1 75 a 2 75 to 4 50. Lambs $1 06 to 2 75. All sold. can pursuit throughout the western and southern ern sections of the country, that the number of consumers has rapidly increased; laborers ha-ving been called from the tillage of the soil to the workshops. The returns made up at New Orleans of the movements of agricultural products

Commence of New York.—Clearances from the 3d to the 10th May, inclusive:—

10,625 Of the 15 foreign clearances, 12 were British vessels.

SHIFFING AT PHILADELPHIA.—The river Delaware presented an unusually cheerful and busy aspect on Saturday. A favorable wind brought a very large fleet of vessels, and for some hours, the various craft, working their way up to the wharves, croasing and recrossing, and all laboring shead with greater or less degree of speed, presented a picturesque and exceedingly interesting view. Forty-five vessels reported at the Custom House as having reached their berths opposite to the city front, whilst as many more passed up to the Coal Depot at Richmond, where they are much needed. Others again diverged into the Schuylkill. Many of the arrivals were from foreign ports, and their incoming is a good and substantial index to a chapter of brisk business for our merchants. At Richmond, the operations have been very active, and vessels arrive and depart with un usual celerity, and many orders are yet unfilled because the Gazette, May 12.

BY THE SOUTHERN MAIL.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT FROM WASHINGTON.

JOHN C. CALHOUN PROBABLY GOING TO

Oregon and a Commercial Treaty.

We received from Washington last evening, by private and well informed correspondent, who has the best means of information, some intelligence on the movements of the administration of Mr. Polk, of great and increasing importance in the present critieal position of our relations with England on the Oregon and other questions.

We are informed that Mr. Polk has under advisement a project to appoint on a special mission to England, John C.Calhoun, of S.Carolina, with extraordinary powers and large discretion, to treat with that Government, beth on the Oregon territory and a Commercial treaty, on the basis of reciprocity and equal duties. We are assured also that Mr. Calhoun will certainly accept such a mission, although he refused the ordinary mission a few months ago. It will be recollected that this mission—the ordi-ary grade-has been successively offered to, and refused by, both Messrs. Elmore and Pickens, of South Carolina. The refusal of both these gentlemen have been caused by the belief among the southern statesmen, that in the present crisis of the country, and particularly since the recent position of the British Government, as assumed by Sir Robt.

Peel, has been announced, no man possesses the peculiar and happy characteristics for such a mission, in so eminent a degree as Mr. Calhoun. A rumor was in circulation some time ago in this city that Mr. Van Buren was to be offered such a mission. This rumor was, however, started by some of his parti zans here, who had an inkling that the President preferred Mr. Calhoun. It is well known that on the inauguration of Mr. Polk, the same mission was offered to Mr. Calhoun—but the relations of the United South with England were not then in the menacing ondition that they are now, nor did they require such position and force of character in the Envoy that might be appointed to negotiate. The apple is now

Mr. Calhoun is peculiarly fitted for this great mis sion. His sentiments on the Oregon question are known, and command confidence at the North and among the commercial classes. His opinions on the tariff and the principles of reciprocity, carry the whole South. The selection of this great statesman for such a mission would also seem to indicate that a new light had broken over the councils of Mr. Polk. We hope it may be so.

WASHINGTON, May 10, 1845.
Richard Brodhead-President's Gardens-A Suggestion to Capt. Polk to Come Out-Interesting Anecdote of Old Tip and the Countryman-Judge Meek-The London Mission-Mrs. Linn, and the Post Office at St. Louis-Brown's Beefsteaks, &c.
Hon. Richard Brodhead, of Pennsylvania, who has been for several days in town, says that he came on to get some half dozen Pennsylvanians into office, and that he does not intend to leave until they on to get some half dozen Pennsylvanians into office, and that he does not intend to leave until they are provided for—so that we expect the presence of our friend here all the summer.

The concourse at the President's gardens this evening was large, and as that good and honest old gentleman, Joe Gales, would say, "highly respectable and select." The afternoon was clear, the air cool and pleasant—the view twenty miles down the broad Potomac, whitened the sails of numerous wood sloops and fishing smacks, beautiful and picturesque—the music excellent—the gardens with their green sward, fanciful flower beds, gravel walks, groups of trees, and artificial hillocks, sweet as the breath of a dreaming bride; the company au fait, agreeable and chatty; but the President is desired to show his face ameng his fellow citizens now and then. He could not do a more popular act than to come out some fine Saturday afternoon with his amiable wife and family, and mingle for half an hour among the people. The frequent appearances of Queen Victoria out among the public have made her sovereignty strong, and herself the most honestly esteemed little woman of the age. But how much more is it the province of our Republican President of a great constituency who are not his subjects, but the sovereignty of the land, to show him self among the people on fitting occasions. During the single month that Gen Harrison was master at the White House, he had succeeded in winning the affection of friends and fees by the simplicity and republican familiarity of his manners with everybody. Everybody could approach him—he was beloved by everybody; he was every day to be found on the streets or in the market, buying cabbages, potatoes, and such like. He was emphatically the citizen President. We will just mention a little incident in illustration. He bought one morning in the market of a countrymau a milch cow. The man thought "Old Tip" was nothing more than a plain citizen, and chattered away withour reserve. "Old
The instruction o tatoes, and such like. He was emphatically the citizen President. We will just mention a little incident in illustration. He bought one morning in the market of a countrymau a milch cow. The man thought "Old Tip" was nothing more than a plain citizen, and chattered away without reserve. "Old Tip" invited him to his house to breakkfast; the stranger, who at once assented, and side by side they walked up toward the White House; but on turning in at the gate of the mansion, the countryman was struck dumb, and fell back in consternation. On recovering his speech he apologisod to the President for his familiarity—hoped no offence—didn't know him, or wouldn't have done so for any thing. "Never mind—never mind," said Old Tip; "you are a man, and so am I; you are one of the people, and I am their servant, and their tenant of this house. I shall therefore regard it an honor to have one; of my landlords as my guest." The countryman went inside the gate a strong Van Buren man, he came out without office; but with a warm breakfast upon his stomach, and the strongest sort of a conviction that Old Tip was a democrat. Now, that's the way to do it. Capt. Polk, we know to be a good plain and unostentatious American—a good man—an honest, and not a proud or anstocratic man, but he must come out now, and then among the people, and chat and laugh with them, and then, if he chooses to run for another term, he will be elected by acclamation. Our great men ought not to forget their origin—nor their relations in the sovereign ty to the country, or as Mr. Carey, of Maine, would say, to the "honest yeomanry of the land."

We are gratified to learn that Judge Meek, of Alabama, one of the most elegant and deservedly popular poets of the South, has been put into a comiortable berth in the Treasury Department. The fact is, if we want good music, we must take care of our singing birds. Therefore, in the language of Beau Hickman, we shall "wring in "upon the President ourself, by and by, for something in his line. As there seems to be some dif
